

Crypto 2025

SPONSORSHIP PACKAGES

Crypto is the premier cryptography conference, organized annually by the International Association for Cryptologic Research (IACR). As the original flagship conference, it attracts leading researchers from both academia and industry worldwide, showcasing cutting-edge cryptographic advancements that shape the future of cybersecurity.

We anticipate another exciting program featuring groundbreaking research with significant implications across various fields.

Your generous sponsorship is crucial in supporting student participation and fostering a diverse and inclusive community at Crypto.

We offer a range of sponsorship packages to suit your needs, and all sponsors will receive prominent recognition, including logo placement on all event signage and conference websites.

We invite you to join us in supporting this vital event and showcasing your commitment to cryptographic research and innovation

Thank you!

Francisco Rodríguez-Henríquez

General Chair of Crypto 2025

The IACR is a non-profit organization and the expenses for all IACR conferences are paid for by registration fees and sponsorships from institutions such as your company. For past editions of the conference, sponsors have used the opportunity to advertise, recruit, network, or to simply support the progress in the field.
